

The "Bird Brain" Crossword

ACROSS

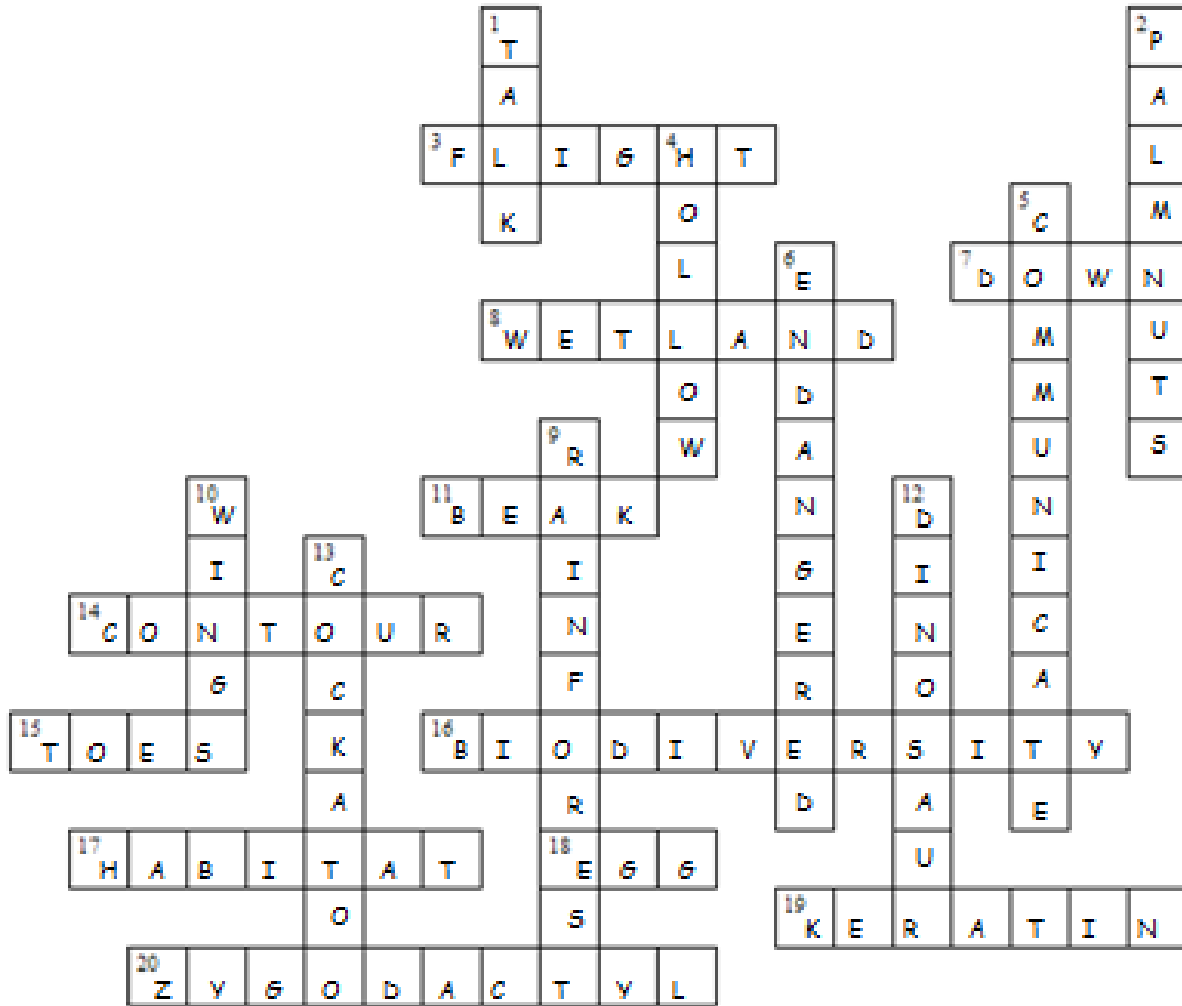

- 3 These feathers create lift so the parrot can fly.
- 7 These feathers keep a parrot warm and dry.
- 8 Hyacinth Macaws live in this habitat.
- 11 Parrots are unique birds because they can move the upper part of this.
- 14 This type of feather makes a parrot's body streamlined.
- 15 Parrots have four of these on each foot.
- 16 A word describing the millions of life forms on earth.
- 17 This is the place in which an animal (or parrot) lives.
- 18 Parrots, reptiles, fish and amphibians all start out their lives in this.
- 19 Both beaks and our fingernails are made of this material.
- 20 This word describes the fact that parrots have two toes pointing forwards and two pointing backwards.

DOWN

- 1 Many pet parrots learn how to do this.
- 2 The main food of Hyacinth Macaws.
- 4 A word that describes the inside of a parrot's bones.
- 5 Parrots use both their voices and their bodies to do this.
- 6 The word used to describe the more than 90 species of parrots at risk.
- 9 Many species of parrots live in this rainy, dense jungle habitat.
- 10 Most parrots, and all bats, use these to fly.
- 12 Many scientists think birds evolved from this type of extinct creature.
- 13 What's one more than a cockaone? ☺

The "Bird Brain" Crossword - Answers

ACROSS

- 3 These feathers create lift so the parrot can fly.
- 7 These feathers keep a parrot warm and dry.
- 8 Hyacinth Macaws live in this habitat.
- 11 Parrots are unique birds because they can move the upper part of this.
- 14 This type of feather makes a parrot's body streamlined.
- 15 Parrots have four of these on each foot.
- 16 A word describing the millions of life forms on earth.
- 17 This is the place in which an animal (or parrot) lives.
- 18 Parrots, reptiles, fish and amphibians all start out their lives in this.
- 19 Both beaks and our fingernails are made of this material.
- 20 This word describes the fact that parrots have two toes pointing forwards and two pointing backwards.

DOWN

- 1 Many pet parrots learn how to do this.
- 2 The main food of Hyacinth Macaws.
- 4 A word that describes the inside of a parrot's bones.
- 5 Parrots use both their voices and their bodies to do this.
- 6 The word used to describe the more than 90 species of parrots at risk.
- 9 Many species of parrots live in this rainy, dense jungle habitat.
- 10 Most parrots, and all bats, use these to fly.
- 12 Many scientists think birds evolved from this type of extinct creature.
- 13 What's one more than a cockaone? ☺