

The Parrot Match Game

On the left side of the page, you will find words that have to do with the parrots. Use them to fill in the blanks in the statements on the right side of the page. Good luck!

Rainforest
Contour
Palm nuts
Community
Canopy
Zygodactyl
360
Down
Niche
Ecosystem
Flight
Extinct
Wetlands
Threatened
Endangered

_____ means parrots have 2 toes in front and 2 toes behind.

When a parrot species goes _____, it means there are none left anywhere in the world.

_____ feathers are the ones closest to the bird's skin. They keep the bird warm.

There are approximately _____ different species of parrots in the world today.

Wild Hyacinth macaws eat a diet consisting mainly of _____.

A _____ is made up of all the plants and animals that live together within the same habitat.

Every living thing has its own special role, or _____ within the community.

The habitat of wild Moluccan cockatoos is the _____.

When there are very few members of a parrot species left in the world, they are referred to as being _____.

_____ feathers are the ones on a parrot's tummy, back and head that make its body smooth to aid in flight.

Animals that are almost endangered are called _____.

Wild Hyacinth macaws can be found living in the _____ of South America.

A group of living and non-living things that interact with each other is called an _____.

_____ feathers are found on the bird's wings.

There are four layers in the rainforest: the floor, the understory, the _____ (where most parrots live) and the emergent layer.

The Parrot Match Game

On the left side of the page, you will find words that have to do with the parrots. Use them to fill in the blanks in the statements on the right side of the page. Good luck!

Rainforest
Contour
Palm nuts
Community
Canopy
Zygodactyl
350
Down
Niche
Ecosystem
Flight
Extinct
Wetlands
Threatened
Endangered

Zygodactyl _____ means parrots have 2 toes in front and 2 toes behind.

When a parrot species goes extinct _____, it means there are none left anywhere in the world.

Down _____ feathers are the ones closest to the bird's skin. They keep the bird warm.

There are approximately 360 _____ different species of parrots in the world today.

Wild Hyacinth macaws eat a diet consisting mainly of palm nuts _____.

A community _____ is made up of all the plants and animals that live together within the same habitat.

Every living thing has its own special role, or niche _____, within the community.

The habitat of wild Moluccan cockatoos is the rainforest _____.

When there are very few members of a parrot species left in the world, they are referred to as being endangered _____.

Contour _____ feathers are the ones on a parrot's tummy, back and head that makes its body smooth.

Animals that are almost endangered are called threatened _____.

Wild Hyacinth macaws can be found living in the wetlands _____ of South America.

A group of living and non-living things that interact with each other is called an ecosystem _____.

Flight _____ feathers are found on the bird's wings.

There are four layers in the rainforest: the floor, the understory, the canopy _____ (where most parrots live) and the emergent layer.